

I am emphatically opposed to loosening the standards for the no-call list regulations that are in force in Wisconsin. I signed on for the original no-call list at the state and federal level and have been immensely pleased. These unsolicited calls serve no purpose other than to dupe consumers into options that are adverse at best and illegal at worst. One would have to be "brain-dead" to buy something through a stranger making an unsolicited call.